PERFORMANCE: Music (Concert)

Judges MUST understand that Achievement is the end result of what the performers are given and how well they fulfill and communicate those responsibilities.

WHAT + HOW = ACHIEVEMENT. Therefore, the PERFORMANCE: Music judge must understand that the evaluation of content of the program, in combination with performance level, is what determines the degree of achievement. It is impossible to properly evaluate one of these elements without considering the other.

Ensemble Quality of Achievement

SUB-CAPTION DESCRIPTION	TO WHAT DEGREE DID THE MUSICAL DESIGN DEMONSTRATE:	POINT VALUE 100 SCORE:
Ensemble Cohesiveness	The ability to maintain unity of pulse and rhythmic clarity within the ensemble.
Dynamic Range and Control	Achievement of dynamic contrast and gradation appropriate to instrumentation.
Texture and Orchestration	The creative diversity of sound sources, timbres, sonority and texture presented within the program.
Uniformity	Adherence to defined qualities of implement control, timing, sound quality and expression
Adherence to Musical Style	The consistent application of a chosen style or role.

Individual Training, Accuracy & Definition

SUB-CAPTION DESCRIPTION	TO WHAT DEGREE DID THE PERFORMERS DEMONSTRATE:	POINT VALUE 100 SCORE:
Technique/Method	Achievement of a uniform approach to method of execution.
Rhythmic Accuracy	Achievement of clear, well-defined rhythmic patterns that are consistent with pulse and ensemble.
Musicianship	Accurate and consistent control of articulation, technique, timbre, and phrasing.
Sound Production	Achievement of characteristic tone quality for all percussion, electronics, vocalizations, etc.
Simultaneous Responsibility	Demonstration of multiple responsibilities, both musical and visual, fulfilled and well achieved.
